CRIMINAL NO. 1:11-cr-554 (TSE)

Government's Reply to Motion for Return of Property under FRCrP 41(g)

Defendant Jubair Ahmad has filed a motion for return of seized property, to include his passport. (Dkt. 66). The government has no objection to returning the defendant's property, and will ensure that such property is returned to the defendant's family. However, the government does not have an exact timeline as to when that will happen. With required social distancing and teleworking due to the Coronavirus, it will likely take longer than normal to have FBI personnel who can identify, locate and return defendant's property. Nonetheless, the defendant's release date is not until February 2022, and the government will endeavor to have it returned well before then.

Respectfully submitted,

G. Zachary Terwilliger
United States Attorney
